

EXAMINATION HALL CODE

1. Please be in the examination hall atleast 10 minutes before the exam starts.
2. Once inside the exam hall, do not make any noise.
3. You shall not discuss anything with your class mates once you are inside the exam hall.
4. Do not bring any bag to the exam hall. If you bring any bag, you are liable to leave your bag outside the exam hall. If you have only notebooks or books, these may be left in the pigeon holes provided inside the exam hall.
5. You are allowed only writing and drawing tools, calculator, and a bottle of drinking water inside the exam hall. Borrowing inside the hall is strictly prohibited.
6. If you want to attract the attention of the invigilator, please raise your hand or stand up.
7. You may not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation for any questions on the question paper. You shall not indulge in any prohibited practices during the course of the examination.
8. You must neither take in any loose sheets of paper into the exam hall, nor take out any sheets of paper, other than the question paper, out of the exam hall.
9. All rough sheets, and other sheets used during the examination must be tied to the examination answer scripts. You must not leave them at your desk or take them outside the exam hall.
10. Littering inside the exam hall is prohibited. Be sure that you are taking back all your belongings when you leave the exam hall.
11. You must not leave the examination hall without the permission of the invigilator.
12. After you have finished the examination, please remain seated and wait patiently till the closing time for the answer scripts to be collected. Make sure that you personally hand over the answer scripts to the invigilator.
13. You must not talk to or disturb other candidates once the examination has started, and before the answer scripts have been collected from all the students in the hall.
14. After permission has been given by the invigilator, all students can leave the exam hall quietly at the same time.
15. Please do not make any noise near the exam hall.

Kindly cooperate to make each examination a pleasant experience.